

Sample Permit:

Samples are little bits of product, not whole portions, given out to sample a product and are not for sale. Examples of product that would need a sample permit include; Reconstituted soup mix held hot, dip mix mixed with sour cream, mayonnaise, or milk and kept cold. Exemptions that do not require a permit include; coffee, hot chocolate, spiced cider that comes from powder mix and only water is added.

Temporary Permit:

A temporary permit will be required when handling and preparing a TCS food(s) that will be sold or given away to the public. Examples: Hot dogs and hamburgers cooked and assembled on-site, pizza, burritos, etc. all food must be prepared on-site.